Zenz Praises Tri-Valley Lions

Harold Zenz, County Planning Director, gave high praise to the Tri-Valley Lions Club for their recent clean-up of the highway from Morongo to Joshua Tree. Here is his letter:

"October 31, 1947

"Joshua Tree Tri-Valley Lions Club.
"Joshua Tree, California
"Gentlement:

It is with particular pleasure that we read an article in the Joshua Journal of October 1st relative to the cleaning of the unsightly accumulations along the Highways in your area.

"The County Planning Commission has started a program attempting to have the bottle manufacturers and brewing industry accept a major share of the public education work in this growing problem, and I am inclosing a copy of a short summary in which you will be interested. Our campaign is gathering impetus, and we feel sure that before next summer the advertising of the bottlers will be aimed at public education along the line of sensible disposal of the bottles and cans.

"May we commend you sincerely for your efforts, and your civic pride. The County Highway Department also is appreciative, as this cleanup problem is one that keeps road money from being spent for our needed road work. Your move is one of the best illustrations we have of self-help, showing clearly that to get a job done does not mean to look toward the County, State or Nation.

"Our sincerest compliments!
"COUNTY PLANNING COMMSSION,
"HAROLD ZENZ,
"Planning Director."

Tooters and Thumpers Wanted For Cowboy Band

Jim Bryan of Jims Barber-Sport Shop in 29 Palms has issued a call for musicians to play in a newly formed Cowboy Band. With a nucleus of ten bandmen and, count 'em, four high stepping majorettes, Bryan says the band already has a good start. It is reported that several engagements are in the offing now. So, if you can coax pretty notes out of any band instrument get in touch with Jim at his Shop south of 4 Corners in 29 Palms.

Weekend guests at Golden Tree Lodge were the Misses Rita Koss, Helen Rath and Elizabethh Price of Los Angeles. They were visiting our desert for the first time.

Mrs. W B. Butler and Miss Kay Kirckhofer of Los Angeles spent Saturday and Sunday in Joshua Tree at the Dunlop Apartment.

Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Luman of Los Angeles paid a visit to the Journal office on Saturday.

Armistice Day

IN MEMORIAM

By Ozro Dodge Thomas

Our beloved sons!
We remember you—
Your childish laughter
And lusty youth
Are now a part of
The song of ages.
Earth mourns.
Weeping, we place this
Fragile flower above
Your hallowed dust,
Seeing, in its chaste beauty,
Promise of an eternal
Springtime, in a habitation
Not made with hands,
Eternal and in the heavens
Where there are no
Thundering guns of death;
No blinded eyes;
No blood red wounds;
No writhing agony,
And no pain.
Praying that God in His
Mercy may let us hear
Your laughter, join in
Your song, and press
Our starving, anguished
Lips upon your cheek
Once more.
Our beloved sons
We remember you.

Sportsmans Club Will Hold Turkey Shoot

Sun Valley turkeys will be the prizes for local nimrods in a Turkey Shoot to be staged on Saturday and Sunday, November 22 and 23, by the Joshua Tree Sportsmans Club at the American Legion grounds. Claud Irwin, Club prexy, announced that special events have been arranged for shotgun, .22 caliber and high-powered rifles and pistols. There will also be events for the ladies only.

Members of the Sportsmans Club are busy now in preparing the targets and target butts and setting up rules for the contest. Irwin said that the prizes may be taken home, on the hoof, or held for the winner to be picked up for Thanksgiving feasting.

Matthews Buys Coffee Shop

A. L. Matthews of Los Angeles, reported to the Journal Sunday that he had purchased from Mrs. Helen Palmer the Palmer Coffee Shop in Joshua Tree. Final arrangements for the change in management were made Monday and the new owner will open again Wednesday morning for breakfast. Matthews said he would operate as the M and M Coffee Shop.

Matthews is well-known in Joshua Tree having resided here and was a frequent visitor in times past. He says that he will serve good, home-style meals in a homelike atmosphere.

Phone Crews Bring Materials For New Local Exchange

Poles, cross-arms, wire and other materials necessary for the long awaited Joshua Tree Telephone Exchange will start pouring in this week according to word received by Chas. A. Mitchell, Townsite Company manager, from Bill Nash, district manager for the California Water and Telephone Company at Palm Springs. Nash phoned Mitchell last week asking for a lot on which to store the material as it arrives.

The exchange will be set up in the home of Gladys Teeter who will be the local manager and operator. Some of the equipment of the power company will be utilized but new installations will be required as well. Business and residential service will be given to Joshua Tree and Yucca Valley subscribers through the local exchange. Suburban service to outlying subscribers is also contemplated.

Nash was in Joshua Tree and Yucca Valley several weeks ago signing up subscribers to the service. Approximately sixty Joshuans desired telephones.

It is expected that installation crews will begin operations soon. They are now completing additions to the system in 29 Palms. Persons or firms who have not already subscribed may leave their names at the Joshua Tree Townsite office if they wish telephone service.

Art Exhibit Will Feature C of C Meeting

A group of paintings by Balthasar Kundert, formerly of Palm Springs and now a Joshua Tree resident, will be shown at the regular meeting of the Joshua Tree Chamber of Commerce at the Community Hall on Friday night, November 14th. Included among Kundert's canvases will be many landscapes of desert scenes as well as views of coastal and mountain regions.

Outstanding among the items of regular business will be the announcement by the Nominating Committee of their selection of candidates for officers and directors for next year. As required by C of C By-laws the candidates are presented a month before the annual election which occurs at the December meeting. At the latter meeting nominations may still be made from the floor for any position.

Alcoholics Anonymous Installs New Group

The Joshua Tree members of Alcoholics Anonymous with others from Yucca Valley and 29 Palms journeyed to Yucaipa Monday night, November 10, to install the group at that village. A new group is also forming at Beaumont.

Members of the local AA meet on Mondays at the Community Hall. Eighteen attended the first meeting there Monday a week ago.

Christian Scientists To Meet Here

Beginning with the Wednesday evening testimonial service the recently organized Christian Science Society will meet regularly at the Community Hall in Joshua Tree. For the past few weeks the services have been held at the DAV building in 29 Palms. Sunday services will be conducted at 11 a.m. and the Wednesday evening meetings will convene at 8 p.m.

Reader W. L. Jinkins reports that the local Society will ask for a charter from the Mother Church and that plans will be formulated for the eventual building of a Joshua Tree Church.

Lions to Hear Blue Cross Talk

At the next meeting of the Tri-Valley Lions Club the members will hear an official of the Blue Cross organization tell of the hospital and medical plans offered by that group. Much interest has been shown in this project for our desert area.

At the meeting in Angels Cafe last Thursday Don Van Camp and Ray Borg, heads of the Lions sponsored Yucca Valley Boy Scout troop, appeared in their new uniforms. They told of the progress already made by the new Scout troop.

In the absence of president Bouchey Lion Nichols presided.

Guest House Sold To Banning Man

It was reported last week that Edward G. Greening of Banning had purchased the Coulter Guest House from Jay Denier of Palm Springs and Joshua Tree. Denier ecently purchased the Guest House from its former owner Verna Coulter.

Greening said that he contemplated some changes but details will be announced later as they are completed.

The Personal Touch

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Webb and daughter Evelyn Rae of Compton visited their ranch at Sun Valley over the weekend. Evelyn Rae, an ardent equestrienne, presented the Journal editor with an attractive sketch of a horse that she had drawn

Lowly Philosophy

By JUNE LeMERT PAXTON

For some years, in one of my scrap-books, I have kept a newspaper clipping that I like better each time that I read it; I am passing it on to you in hopes that you, too, will enjoy it.

"THIS IS FRIENDSHIP"

"I love you, not only for what you are, but for what I am when I am with you. I love you, not only for what you have made of yourself, but for what you are making of me.

"I love you because you have done more than any creed could have done to make me happy. You have done it without a touch, without a word, without a sign. You have done it by just being yourself.

"After all, perhaps that is what being a friend means!"

Church Corner

By ANTOINETTE KIRCH

At the regular Sunday Service conducted by Dr. D. C. Williams Mrs. Kirch sang "I Am Thine, Oh Lord" and was accompanied by Mrs. H. K. Lee at the piano. For the remainder of this month the services will be held at 7:15 p.m. If you enjoy good congregation singing come and join us Sunday night.

Next Sunday Dr. Williams will preach a special sermon on "The Last Great Wonder."

Our plans are progressing well for the building of the Chapel. Donations are coming in and soon the cornerstone will be laid.
